

The historic Antica Casa Porrani Castello Cabiaglio is a 17th century residence and boasts over 300m² of floor space. Named after the family that has lived here since its construction, the descendants of which remain the home's owners, Casa Porrani overlooks an internal courtyard and garden of more than 600m², which include a large chestnut tree, palm trees, and hydrangea and laurel bushes. The portico includes an ancient well which is functional to this day. Its ample 40m² kitchen, three bedrooms on the second floor, two baths, living area, dining room, and garden are available to guests.